SPECIALTY AND EXPERIENCE

Jack is a Broker in the Industrial Division at Harvey Lindsay Commercial Real Estate. He brings a strong foundation in real estate finance, development, and market analysis to his work representing clients across the industrial sector. Known for strong communication skills and strong work ethic, he is committed to helping clients navigate the industrial real estate market with clarity and diligence.

Jack began building this foundation through internships across the commercial real estate industry. At Harvey Lindsay, he gained early, hands-on exposure to industrial brokerage and sales. At Venture Realty, he supported real estate development and construction management and completed a market analysis project comparing commercial properties to inform investment decisions. At Suburban Capitol, he developed a working knowledge of hotel development and real estate finance, including deal structuring and underwriting.
